

Speedy Starter 2: Tenses

Present perfect simple or progressive.

1. They _____ the car since three o'clock and they _____ yet. (repair / not finish)
2. He _____ at the airport. (already arrive)
3. How long _____ for Linda? (he wait)
4. _____ all the presents yet? (you buy)
5. He _____ the driving test. (just pass)
6. She _____ her since Friday. (not see)
7. We _____ English for five years. (learn)
8. She _____ him before. (never meet)
9. They _____ for him all day but they _____ him yet. (look / not find)
10. Fred and Jim _____ for their exam all day. (learn)

Speedy Starter 2: Tenses

Present perfect simple or progressive.

1. They have been repairing the car since three o'clock and they have not finished yet. (repair / not finish)
2. He has already arrived at the airport. (already arrive)
3. How long has he been waiting for Linda? (he wait)
4. Have you bought all the presents yet? (you buy)
5. He has just passed the driving test. (just pass)
6. She hasn't seen her since Friday. (not see)
7. We have been learning English for five years. (learn)
8. She has never met him before. (never meet)
9. They have been looking for him all day but they haven't found him yet. (look / not find)
10. Fred and Jim have been learning for their exam all day. (learn)